NEW GRILL TIPS

You were in the market for a new grill. You did your research, you asked your friends and neighbors for advice, and you decided to buy a Weber. Congratulations on your new Weber grill, and welcome to the family! You made a great decision to buy a Weber, and we're going to make sure you're armed with all the information you need to get off to a great start.

TIP 01: READ THE OWNER'S GUIDE

- » The owner's guide came in the box with your grill or you can locate it on our website by clicking here.
- » Safety information – Our top priority is our customer's safety. Your owner's guide contains all the information you need to operate your grill safely.
- » Maintenance/Cleaning – You just made an investment in a top-of-the-line grill, so be sure to take care of it with proper cleaning and maintenance. Your owner's guide is a great source for troubleshooting tips and cleaning instructions.
- » Product knowledge – The owner's guide contains information specific to your grill, like proper preheating times and how to use any special features on your grill, such as High+ or a rotisserie.

TIP 02: REGISTER YOUR GRILL

- » Registering your grill activates your warranty. It also allows you to easily place online orders and keep tabs on all of your registered Weber grills, including the owner's guide and warranty information.
- » If you need to contact Customer Service, it will help us pinpoint exactly which model grill you own, process your warranty claim much faster, and help you with additional parts or accessories that fit the model of your grill.

TIP 03: ESSENTIAL ACCESSORIES

COOKING

CLEANING AND CARE

CHARCOAL AND SMOKERS
